Sabbath School Lesson No. 5 for Oct. 31, 1970
Subject: Inspired Health Counsels
Key Text Scripture: "In everything ye are enriched by Him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge; even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you: so that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Cor. 1:5-7.

The church at Corinth was enriched "in all utterance and in all knowledge." So is the church of this our day "enriched" by the spirit of prophecy counsels. Think of how these messages adapted to our needs and if followed will result in abundant, healthful living. "Although writing at a time when health fallacies were prevalant, the principles have been verified by science in a remarkable way."

Lesson Outline – 1. Emotions and Health, Prov. 14:30. Fats, Sugars, and Human Heart. Lev. 3:17, 3. Stress and Longevity Deut. 33:25 (last part) 4.Cancer and its causes. Ps. 68:20. 5. Smoking and Lung Disease 1 Cor. 3:17. 6. Hypnosis and its Aftermath. Rom. 6:16. Summed up in a "nut shell" as it were –then following questions and answers are completed for the "lesson" Sat., Oct. 31. 1. Complete: "The sympathy which exist between the mind and the body is very great. When one is affected, the other responds." 2. True or False: a. Animal fat yields "a diseased current of blood in the human system. True b. Sugar may be used in the human diet freely without risk of disease. False, 3. What is one continuing cause of premature death among human beings? Stress and anxiety. 4. Does our diet have anything to do with cancer? Yes. 5. Identify three lung diseases associated with the use of tobacco. Chronic Bronchitis, Emphysema, Lung Cancer. 6. True or False. 2. Hypnosis in dangerous because it puts the therapist in the place where God should be and robs the patient of the inclination to use will power and self control.

Young People Gave Party

For more than 50 young people there was a cake walk, spook house, fortune telling and costume judging, all planned and carried out by the Jr. High Methodist Youth Fellowship (above) shown at their Sunday night meeting. Costume winners Thursday night, Oct. 29 were Floyd Flint ("Robot") and Sharon Kay Guill ("clown") October sponsors for the young people were Mrs. Jerry Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. Travis Poole. One good question –"Who cleaned up after the party?" As in one voice the young folks answered, "We did!" From left (front row) Mike Lewis, Jerry Comer, David Jones and Al Sears. Behind them: Jane Conner, Brenda Eastman, Kay Robinson, Beth Lawson, Kathy Paulette, Ann Sears and Sue Perdue. Sponsors for the month of November are Mrs. Fred Lawson and Mr. and Mrs. Alton Smith. (Not Pictured) Patty White, Dale Layne, Gail Layne, Mary Louise Parris, Bill Noble and Mark Eggleston.

True, b. There are times when hypnosis is the only answer to the patient's problem. False.

Dear Friends please look up and read carefully all the Bible texts given in the Lesson Outline and you will agree that all these texts link right up with the answers found in the Summary.

Think It Through – It is our duty to present our bodies "a living sacrifice". What then is our duty in regard to controlling our thinking? If our thinking affects our health, is it not of first importance to think according to God's plan?

Said the psalmist "Light is sown for the righteous and gladness for the upright in heart. Psalm 97:11.

Plans Made For East-West Union

Plans are nearing completion for the semi – annual meeting of the East and West Bound Sunday School Union to be held with the Mount Pleasant Baptist Church Sunday School this fifth Sunday in November at 10 a.m. All schools of the union are to make arrangements to attend.

Impressive services were held at the Galilee Baptist Church last Sunday morning at 11 a.m. The pastor, who has been on vacation, was in charge of service. Special music was rendered by the church choirs. Several visitors attended the service.

The public is cordially invited to attend the regular preaching service at the Mount Shiloh Baptist Church this Sunday morning at 11 a.m.

The special service sponsored by the Morning Star Baptist Church last Sunday evening was attended by a large number of members and friends. The service was rendered by a group of singers from Charlottesville, Va.

All members of Long Mountain Lodge No 204 are asked to attend a special communication at the hall this Saturday evening at 7:30 for the purpose of work in the first degree. Several business matters will be discussed.

The special "Kick Off Rally" sponsored by the Galilee Baptist Church will come to a close on the third Sunday evening in November at 3 p.m. A special service will be rendered by the Jerusalem Baptist Church of Buckingham, the public is cordially invited to attend this service. The Rev. J. W. Steed and his Junior Choir will be the special guest.

The Rev. H. W. Pryor, pastor of the Mt. Airy Baptist Church, is on his vacation for the month of November.

The Junior Choir of the Mt. Airy Baptist Church furnished music for the entire morning service last Sunday morning. All who attended enjoyed the service. The Rev. Mr. Davis of Amherst was the guest minister.

Mrs. Mattie Gafford and her family have moved to their new home in the Spout Spring community.

PLANTATION WINS FORESTRY AWARD

Patrick Henry Boys Plantation was the recipient of the 1970 Outstanding Forestry Award for Charlotte County. This award was presented to Mr. J. K. Andrews, Vice President of the Boys Plantation Board of Directors by Mr. Thomas May.

Forester for Charlotte County on behalf of the Southside Soil and Water Conservation District Board of Directors.

This award was given in recognition of the extensive reforestation project which the Plantation has been conducting over the past five years. During this time, 125 acres of loblolly pines have been planted on cut-over woodland, 101 acres of release work and aerial spraying, 30 acres prepared by drumming and prescribed burning and 4 acres of growing pines were marked and thinned.

Patrick Henry Boys Plantation which is located near Brookneal, Va. is a home for non-delinquent homeless boys from all parts of Virginia. This private non - profit charitable organization is located on 840 acres of Patrick Henry's last home "Red Hill."

Jordan Baptist

"Blessed is every one that feareth the Lord; that walketh in his ways. Psalm 128:1.

All who went to Bethlehem with Rev. Elliott last Sunday afternoon had an enjoyable time.

The Senior Choir will practice tonight (Thursday) at 7:30.

The Senior Choir will sing at Free Spring Sunday evening at 6:00.

Deacon John H. Jones celebrated his 85th birthday, Nov. 2.

We are sorry that Mr. Asie Abbitt got his wrist broken. We are happy that he is doing nicely and hope he'll soon be back with the choir.

FIGHT CANCER WITH A CHECKUP AND A CHECK

Eye Bank Film Widely Viewed

RICHMOND – The 15-minute film, "Eyes That Live Again," produced specifically for the Old Dominion Eye Bank, has been viewed by hundreds of thousands of Virginians in the past 12 months, according to R. Kenneth Hudgins, the Eye Bank's Executive Director.

The Eye Bank has distributed 37 prints of the film to other eye banks and to local Lions Clubs throughout the state. The distribution has made it possible to make the film available for presentation to clubs, organizations, and PTAs all over eastern Virginia. Requests for showings, he said, may be made to local Lions Clubs or to Old Dominion Eye Bank, Richmond Eye Hospital, Richmond.
